Next Meeting, May 21st Red Sands Beach, Wisconsin Rapids, WI

Club Website: www.midstatemdc.com

Business this month:

Doug Maeder found out that any park in Wood County is open to hunt.

Kent Kehus talked about our club hunts in May, June & July, August & September. We should have a hunt close with Wednesday night meetings. Some could be week-end hunts and still have a Wednesday night meeting.

Larry Stamp gave the treasures report and mentioned that he had bought more mercury dimes and it was suggested to him that he should buy more while the price was down.

Steve Miller has taken care of the hunt fliers and contacted metal detecting companies for their donations.

TEASURED TIMES – MIDSTATE METAL DETECTOR CLUB NEWSLETTER – May 2014

Rick Gremler talked about metal detecting site is up and running with a lot of new information on it. Midstate MDC.com findmall is a good website to go to for info on all kinds of metal detectors, according to Art Albright.

Larry Vanderhoef said that there was NO new news on the legislation.

There was a vote on changing our July 16th meeting. It will be (July 9th) at Kathy Montgomery's camp at Deer Trail Campground (lot # 56) We will have the hunt at 6:30 pm, and bring a dish to pass, plates, silverware, drinks and a chair.

The club is looking for $5.00 gifts or monetary donations for the kids hunt. Please bring these to the July 9th meeting.

50/50 Raffle: Took in $95.00, $47.50 towards getting permission fund started to give to private land owner for detecting; winner of the other half of $47.50 was won by Judy Zastrow, congrats.
