

May 18, 2017

Fourteen people were in attendance and no guests.

Editor's Corner: All the club committees had gone through their reports.

Steve Miller has a possible site by his house for a club hunt.

Steve Livernash is going to make the plaques again this year for the annual hunt.

Steve Miller hasn't heard from many of the hunt sponsors yet. Ed Weinmann Sr. is in charge of the finds of the month.

Kent Kehus took over the raffle this month.

Steve Miller ran into Barb King and she is doing fine.

New Business: none

Old Business: Saturday June 3rd was the Kiwanis Club out door day at Red Sands Beach. Hope that it was successful, and the weather did cooperate for most of the day.

Phil Bender would have won $40 for the Membership Drawing, but he wasn't there, so next month it will be $50.

Finds of the Month:

Indian artifacts - copper culture spout - Doug Miller

Non-detectable - Woodland - Doug Miller

Most Unusual - Sleigh Bell - Ed Weinmann Jr.

Gold - necklace - Doug Miller

Penney - 1898 Doug Miller

Five Cent - 1965 Jim Wallner

Foreign - 1874 Canadian Quarter - Doug Miller

June 11th is the artifacts show in New Holstein, Doug Miller will have a booth there. Contact Doug for more info.

Bring your cases with your finds to the hunt in July to put in the trailer.

Meeting was called to end because of hail (ha ha).